Tracking student logins

You may have several iPads that you use with your group of students. Use this sheet to ensure each student can figure out which iPad they first created their login on. Otherwise, students may end up creating several logins, and not be able to access all their completed info in one spot. This can affect your ability to compile data easily, too.

Student Name/ID	Device Number/ID